Paul,

You never responded to this e-mail with whether your client consented or not. Based on your earlier representations in the attached e-mail that you had consented, I think it would be inappropriate for you to take a contrary position. Accordingly, I have attached a stipulation I am asking for your consent on consistent with the other extensions. Please advise your position so I make the appropriate application to the Court in the event that you are not consenting.

Barry,

Based on a review of the docket, I believe your clients' time to object to discharge or dischargability expired on April 29, 2017. I will check with my client, but I do not expect he will be willing to extend their deadlines now.

Paul,

I am assisting Maranda Fritz in the Bronson case. Please provide your consent for me to submit this to Judge Drain to be so ordered. I would have reached out earlier, but we have been without power in our offices this week.

Thank you.

If there is any issue, please advise.
